

SBC's entry into long distance will greatly benefit the Tourism & Hospitality industry, California's second largest industry. It will provide lower costs and provide more choices to the thousands of hotels, restaurants and visitor-serving businesses that serve the millions of visitors and travelers to our city and state every year.

The San Diego Convention & Visitors Bureau has had a long-term positive relationship with SBC, who have long been solid corporate citizens in our community